TRAVEL TIPS

Carry valid original government-issued photo identification (Voter ID, Passport, or Driving Licence) as permits are required for certain destinations and Aadhar Card and PAN card is not applicable for the issuance of permits. Pack warm clothing, including a jacket, gloves, woollen cap, and comfortable walking shoes, as temperatures can be low, especially in Lachung and Tsomgo Lake. Keep prescribed medicines, motion sickness tablets, and basic personal essentials with you. Stay hydrated and avoid strenuous activities at high altitudes. Walk slowly and allow your body time to acclimatize. Carry sufficient cash, as ATMs and digital payment facilities may be limited in remote areas. Mobile network connectivity may be weak or unavailable in parts of North Sikkim. Follow your driver’s and tour guide’s instructions, especially in high-altitude and restricted areas. Help preserve the natural beauty of Sikkim by avoiding littering and respecting local customs and traditions. Weather in the mountains can change rapidly, so keep a rain jacket or umbrella handy. Sightseeing is subject to weather conditions, road conditions, permit approvals, and government regulations.
